

JULY LUNCHEON

CREW Fashion Event Luncheon at Bloomingdale's

Why Not Look as Successful and Capable as You Feel?

Like it or not, the image we present to the outside world affects how we are evaluated by colleagues and clients as well as friends and family. The proper clothing and accessories can enhance your appearance, making you appear professional, confident and current and boosting your esteem in the eyes of those you encounter.

In this program, the fashion experts at Bloomingdales will show us how to “dress for success” as the seasons change from summer to fall, and will provide us with simple tips on transforming our outfits from our daytime work environments to our evening social and professional events.

A sit-down lunch will be provided by Washington, DC's elite Ridgewells caterers. Attendees will also be informed about private SALE events to make these new looks more affordable. You will not want to miss this fun but important program that can help you ensure that your appearance is helping you obtain and retain clients and is accurately reflecting the successful and competent person that you are! Bring a friend!
